So while legal, the big question surrounds when KY betting apps will become available for use.

When will sports betting launch in Kentucky?

HB 551 legalizing sports betting was signed into law on March 31, 2023.

So what exactly is covered in HB 551, the bill that ultimately became law in KY?

Let's cover the details of what it includes, and what the sports betting market in Kentucky will ultimately look like.

KY Lottery, limited casino games, historical horse racing

Through the years, small adjustments such as the installation of instant racing terminals and Keno and online lottery sales were introduced.

Unfortunately, it stalled in the state Senate and died at the end of the 2022 legislative session.

College sports, remain King in Kentucky.

Online and in-person betting began Sept.

8 2022, and has left almost every other state in the dust since then.

The bill also adds pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing to the state, and adds more brick-and-mortar sportsbooks.

Only certain tribal casinos can take bets.

Listening to the testimony from Minnesota, sports betting won't move forward until the tracks and the tribes can reach an agreement.

New bill proposed for 2023

In late 2022, Democratic Rep.

Henry McMaster opposes sports betting, so even if the legislature managed to pass a bill it'd face another difficult hurdle.
