Can I gamble online in Arizona?

It depends on the type of gambling, and how it is done.

In Arizona, gambling is nothing new.

Then in the late 1980s, the U.

Congress authorized Native American tribes to operate gaming facilities on reservation lands, and Arizona joined other states in the Tribal casino boom of the 1990s.

The most recent chapter of Arizona gambling has been the legalization of sports betting and online fantasy sports in 2021.

There are more than two-dozen land-based casinos in operation that range in size from slots parlors and local poker rooms to full Las Vegas-style gaming resorts with slots, blackjack and other table games.

The 2021 law not only legalizes in-person and mobile sports betting, but also legalizes daily fantasy games and paves the way for an eventual expansion of table games offered in Arizona's licensed casinos.

You can use all of the major credit card companies to place your bets such as American Express, Discover, MasterCard, and Visa at all of the major online sportsbooks. American Express:

The only difference between the two are the minimum and maximum deposits.

At SportsBetting you must deposit a minimum of $50 and max of $2,500.

MyBookie, XBet, BetUS, and SportsBetting all have between $45-$50 minimums with $2,500 maximums.

MyBookie and XBet though have the lowest processing fee at 4.

MyBookie and XBet have the lowest processing fees at 6% but have a $45 minimum and $2,500 maximum.

Both BetUS and SportsBetting have $50 mins and $2,500 max.

For the most value on your deposit though, BetOnline has a $25 minimum requirement and a maximum of $5,000 with a 7.
