Amazon individual seller account: An introduction

A professional account will set you back $39.99 every month, along with some add itional referral fees and variable closing fees for every sale. Unlike the indiv idual Amazon seller account, 'professional' sellers are not charged an e xtra $0.99 per item sold. Professional seller accounts also have access to some advertising features, receive in-depth inventory reports, and can run promotions

, among a host of other benefits.

Bank Account Information: This account is where Amazon will send you the proceed s of your sales. You will usually get your money every 14 days.

Note: You can stop the registration process at any point and return where you le
