My marriage ended because of online gambling. But new companies started up in NSW where the government had no self-exclusion register.

(It was licensed in NSW at that point).

Then I lost almost $8,000 in a single night with another company.

But that is in the past.

Now, I just want to make sure there is robust protection in place to stop what happened to me from happening to others.

It's time to give vulnerable punters a chance at life, a true "exit plan" from further gambling harm.

Stop advertising, stop inducements, put hard limits on how much people like me can lose.
