Key Takeaways In sports betting, an over-under bet is a bet on whether a specific statistic for a game will be higher or lower than a quoted value.

"All you need to decide is whether or not a game will go over or under a set number of points," Petrella explains, and this "gives you a rooting interest in all aspects of the game.

Understanding Over-Under Bets

If the amount bet on both outcomes is exactly even, the money wagered by the losers will be paid to the winners, and the sportsbook will keep the 5% profit.

Change the over-under value itself.

This will also encourage bettors to go with the under.

The payout on an over-under bet doesn't just depend on predicting the score correctly.
