Audacy's "You Better You Bet" hosts Ken Barkley and Nick Kostos chatted with Podsauce, and we're releasing the extended interview this week since they were such amazing guests.

In this video, Nick and Ken go into great detail about crafting the ultimate sports betting podcast, "You Better You Bet," while being authentically themselves.

Of the duo, Nick considers Ken a sports betting expert which started as a side hustle while he did TV work at ESPN.

So more people are clamoring to tune into "You Better You Bet." Nick said sports betting is a great way for states to recoup revenue lost during the pandemic, like in Connecticut, where Ken lives.

Ken and Nick shared their favorite podcasts.
