Martin Lewis tweets condemning binary trading and fake adverts

Which? estimated in their 2021 study that around 15% of people had fallen victim to a scam advert and reported it.

2. Advertisements on fake news sites

With the rise in popularity and complexity of affiliate networks, advertisers are becoming more removed from ad placement, trusting this to third-party specialists. Promoted stories companies are growing in popularity and generating huge amounts of traffic. The two largest, Outbrain and Taboola, have a combined reach of over 1.5 billion people per month.
