4. How do I collect sales tax?

If you have no nexus in a state and you sell there, you don't have to collect sales tax. But here's the catch. The rules defining nexus and what constitutes significant presence vary from state to state. It could range from having a physical presence a store, an office, a warehouse to having a representative or affiliate on your behalf or having attended a trade event or conference there.

Having an employee travel to another state to solicit business there is also likely to create nexus. Nexus rules vary from state to state, so it is best that you check whether your presence qualifies as 'nexus' in a particular state to avoid penalty. Either approach the state's taxing authorities or talk to an experienced tax professional, who will be able to help you out.

How Sales Tax Nexus Impacts You
