Zelle Scam Tactics

Compassion

Fear

Taxpayers sometimes owe money to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), but the IRS doesn't accept payments via Zelle.

Pressure to send money right away for fear of losing out on a special deal or su ffering dire consequences.

Keep your phone locked when it's not being used. Unlocked phones allow scamm ers to quickly open the app and send money directly to their own Zelle accounts.

Confirm cash requests by contacting the person through a known phone number, eve n if you've sent them money before.

If you suspect a Zelle scam, report it to the financial institution associated w ith the debit or credit card used for the transaction. Call Federal members can use the form at the bottom of our Identity Theft Prevention page to get this pro cess started. You can also file a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission at ReportFraud.ftc.gov.

I've washed them several times and they still hold up just as they did when I first bought them.

[Image] Promising review: "I ordered this in the black and the purple co lor combo is amazing.

I love how soft it is and how versatile it is.

The material is a thick, soft jersey material, so it's very comfortable.

A button-down dress for the long-waist season.

It is perfect.
