Will I get banned, or can I safely buy Fiverr reviews?

Our Fiverr reviews are genuine, as mentioned above, and we are in accordance with Fiverr Terms of Service. We don't require your credential account, and there is no risk of account breach. You will not be banned for utilizing our legitimate service, but your account will be suspended if you use other ineligible suppliers to buy phony Fiverr reviews.

This is unlikely to occur because we seek individuals who are truly interested in your product to purchase it, but how Fiverr works to delete reviews is unknown. We will deduct the cost of the product, but not the review fee. The cost for the review is non-refundable. You may either increase the price of the product or move the review charge to other services.
